Presenter

Barbara A. Ward, LCSW, M.Div.
Founder and President
Abiding in the Vine Family Life
Ministries, Inc.

Barbara is a licensed Clinical Social Worker and serves on staff at Genesis Counseling Center in Hampton. She earned her Master of Divinity degree in 2005 at Regent University.

She is a certified life coach through Transformational Leadership Coaching. She desires to see families healed, restored, and transformed by the power of God. She is on the leadership team at Kingdom Living Ministries, located in Newport News, Virginia. She is also a member of the New Life Network of churches and organizations located in Virginia Beach, Virginia.

A mother and grandmother with a host of “spiritual children and grandchildren,” Barbara currently resides in Newport News, Virginia.

The story of each of our lives unfolds differently. My story of an orphaned heart began when I experienced the loss of my mother at a young age. We probably all have felt the pain of an orphan’s heart at some point in our lives based on our own personal life experiences.

We will continue to experience the pain associated with an orphan’s heart unless we are willing to allow “Abba Father” access to those hidden areas.

Healing the Orphan’s Heart

There are many hurting hearts that have accumulated a reservoir of disappointments, disillusionments, past hurts, and broken relationships which have continued to plague us for many years. It is time for us to remove the clutter from our hearts and minds. This conference will explore the hidden causes of a wounded and broken heart and explore the journey back to healing, identity, and Sonship.

Join us for another opportunity to experience your personal journey toward “Healing of your orphaned Heart.”
